

Selected-Response (SR) Sample Items Grades MS and HS

1. Which of the following products were important components of Georgia's economy during the colonial period?

- A. blueberries and peanuts
- B. carpets and granite
- C. cotton and tobacco
- D. indigo and rice

2. Britain and France engaged in a mid-eighteenth century conflict over land and power.

Why is this conflict significant in American colonial development?

- A. The war ended with Britain increasing its control over the American colonies.
- B. The American Colonies earned their freedom from Great Britain.
- C. The American Colonies increased their global trading.
- D. The American Colonies lost territory to France.